

Dear Sirs,

Thanks for your e-mail on Oct. 10, 2010.

We have fully understood that the name of two products indicated in this case which labeled as “[REDACTED]” and “[REDACTED]” are not approved by [REDACTED]. Thus, we’re going to amend the name of the two products mentioned above.

The applicant indicates that it’s hard to believe that the names of the products which have been authorized in the other case are needed to amend.

Besides, if the applicant chooses not to amend the name of the products mentioned, the products as stands for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] will be deducted. The remaining products in this case will be kept examined continually.

From above, please confirm that there is no expense incurred when the applicant chooses not to defend the comment of examination? Please confirm upon receipt of this mail.