Reading Skills	Level	Your Performance
Reading	Intermediate	Test takers who receive a score at the INTERMEDIATE level, as you did, typically understand academic texts in English that require a wide range of reading abilities, although their understanding of certain parts of the texts is limited. Test takers who receive a score at the INTERMEDIATE level typically <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>have a good command of common academic vocabulary but still have some difficulty with high-level vocabulary;</li> <li>have a very good understanding of grammatical structure;</li> <li>can understand and connect information, make appropriate inferences, and synthesize information in a range of texts but have more difficulty when the vocabulary is high level and the text is conceptually dense;</li> <li>can recognize the expository organization of a text and the role that specific information serves within a larger text but have some difficulty when these are not explicit or easy to infer from the text; and</li> <li>can abstract major ideas from a text but have more difficulty doing so when the text is conceptually dense.</li> </ul>
Listening Skills	Level	Your Performance
Listening	High	Test takers who receive a score at the HIGH level, as you did, typically understand conversations and lectures in English that present a wide range of listening demands. These demands can include difficult vocabulary (uncommon terms, or colloquial or figurative language), complex grammatical structures, abstract or complex ideas, and/or making sense of unexpected or seemingly contradictory information. When listening to lectures and conversations like these, test takers at the HIGH level typically can <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>understand main ideas and important details, whether they are stated or implied;</li> <li>distinguish more important ideas from less important ones;</li> <li>understand how information is being used (for example, to provide evidence for a claim or describe a step in a complex process);</li> <li>recognize how pieces of information are connected (for example, in a cause-and-effect relationship);</li> <li>understand many different ways that speakers use language for purposes other than to give information (for example, to emphasize a point, express agreement or disagreement, or convey intentions indirectly); and</li> <li>synthesize information, even when it is not presented in sequence, and make correct inferences on the basis of that information.</li> </ul>
