

THE VOCATIONAL EDUCATION & TRAINING COUNCIL

Letter of Recommendation

I am writing to recommend TING-WEI HUANG. She is a gifted linguist and a first-rate translator and interpreter. She had been supervised by our appointed assessors during the training period and we found her to be excellent.

TING-WEI HUANG's work has been punctual, clean and neat. She is able to meet deadline and work under pressure. When she first started translating, she was ready and willing to translate anything. She is also keen on exploring translation work in many areas of specialization.

What really impressed our assessors was her diligence and high passion in work. Whenever she encounters difficulties, she will easily overcome it due to her positive working attitude.

In general, TING-WEI HUANG is found to be an excellent translator and works very well by herself. She can also work as part of a team and her relationships with other translators is relaxed and collegial.

I recommend TING-WEI HUANG highly and if an employment opportunity is given.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Robert C. Apgar
Chief Executive Director
