

Do you know how the skin and hair will be after working for many years as a flight attendant?
The different climates in different countries sabotage the cells and tissues, the unventilated cabin make the skin and hair dried. For such reasons, she starts study and makes samples to test on the crews. The feedbacks are incredibly positive, the samples became merchandise, a brand official established. Now the skincare series of Floret's Secret become one of the most popular brands among the flight attendants and people in Taiwan.
