

The second changing of mind refers to the third personality of discernment.

The personality of discern distress, enforce, and discernment

So the three level of psychological said all about our eighth discernment, (the eighth Alaya)

The expressing mind in the three level of psychological

Does it includes world, emptiness, and people

Belonging to our internal body

The desires of reputation, lechery and the six senses

Come from the part of delusion, disturb, and exhaustion

In the six characters

The character of wisdom is our nature personality

Meaning the seventh discernment

The character of continuous experience is our distinguish personality also meaning the seventh discernment

The character of stubbornness is our nature personality

The character of confusion is confused by different facts

So, they both belong to the sixth discernment

Therefore, we are going to make a conclusion